

Game-Changing Experience for Your Shoppers

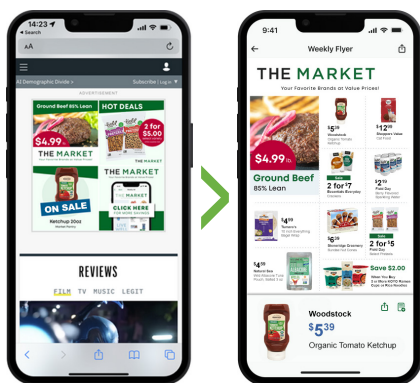

To compete in today's digital-first world, retailers need cutting-edge retail technology solutions that deliver better shopping experiences. The UNFI Media Network ("UMN"), is helping retailers connect to the industry's leading suppliers to unlock new growth opportunities.

With flexible solutions, UMN can either power all your digital needs or seamlessly plug into your existing technology.

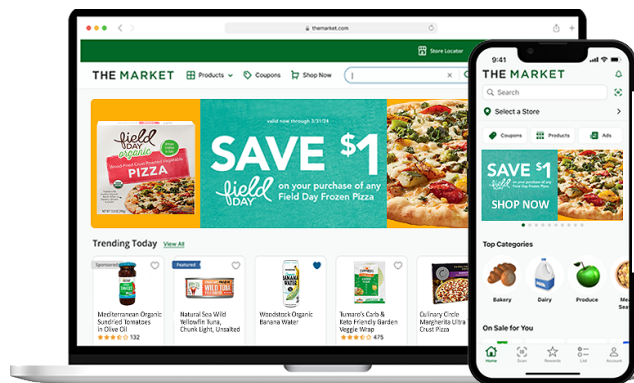

- Establish deeper connections with your shoppers
- Unlock new growth opportunities
- Compete better in today's technology-driven retail marketplace

UMN provides the scale, data, and omnichannel technology necessary to compete through personalized offerings.
