What customers are saying

"We've been with UNFI Retail Payments for several years now, and I remember that it was a very easy and seamless process to get set up. At the time, getting our gift cards converted over took some thought, but it was very quick and easy. One of the reasons we switched was just the financial analysis- our processing fees with our previous provider were going to go down with UNFI Payments.

—Adam Williams, Chief Financial Officer, The Turnip Truck

"Quite frankly, we chose UNFI Payments because of cost. Our contract ran out last spring, and we re-signed because they renegotiated extremely good rates. With the money we're saving, we're putting back into upgrading our stores, investing in our associates, and trying to drive more business."

—Paul Radermacher, Owner, Radermacher's Fresh Market
